

American Heart Association®

life is why™

Fellows Society
of Greater New York

Controversies in Cardiology

Surgical vs. Percutaneous Management of Severe Valvular Heart Disease

November 1, 2017 ~ 6:30 – 9:30 pm

The 3 West Club, 3 W 51st St., NYC

Register Today! Please Register Here

Program Agenda

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 6:30 – 7:30 pm | Registration, Networking, Exhibitors & Buffet Dinner |
| 7:30 – 7:40 pm | Welcome
May Bakir, MD – President, Fellows Society of Greater New York |
| 7:40 – 9:20 pm | Challenging Case: Surgical vs. Percutaneous:
Management of Severe Valvular Heart Disease |
| 9:20 – 9:30 pm | Wrap-up and Adjournment |

Distinguished Panelists

Michael Argenziano, MD, FACS

Professor of Surgery
Chief, Section of Adult Cardiac Surgery
Program Director, Thoracic Surgery Residency
New York-Presbyterian Hospital/Columbia
University Medical Center

Joanna Chikwe, MD

Professor of Surgery
Chief, Cardiothoracic Surgery Division
Co-Director, Heart Institute
Stony Brook University Medical Center

John Fox, MD

Associate Professor of Cardiology
Director, Interventional Cardiology and Cardiac
Catheterization Lab
Mount Sinai Beth Israel

James Slater, MD

Professor of Cardiology, Department of Medicine
Director, Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory
NYU Langone Medical Center

Case Presenter

Ujjwal Rastogi, MD

Mount Sinai Medical Center

Moderator

Mark Abrams, MD

Vice-President, Education, Fellows Society of Greater New York
Columbia University Medical Center